The Pastor's Corner

Rekindling the Fire Within Us

The year 2025 has come, and we're thankful to God for blessing us to see this new year. To show God our gratitude, we need to rekindle the fire that has grown weak. This reminds me of growing up on the farm. Our source of winter warmth was wood-burning heaters and stoves. Dad would turn them down to conserve the fuel (wood) since we were under heavy covers. Nevertheless, in the early morning, he would stir up the coals and add more wood to heat the rooms.

As aforementioned, this is a new year, and our spiritual fuel may have run low. We must return to our first love (Rev. 2:4-5, Rom.13:8-10). The prophet Jeremiah spoke about the word of God as a fire shut up in his bones (Jer. 20:7-11). He had to tell others about the formidable God he serves.

We can't afford to be like the five foolish virgins who allowed their lamps to run out (Matt. 25:1-13). Needless to say, the five wise virgins were watchful enough to keep their lamps fueled up as they went forward to meet their bridegrooms.

The Co-Pastor's Nuggets

A Fresh Start

Philippians 1:6 “Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ.”

Paul understood the importance of putting and keeping Jesus first as a part of his relationship with Christ. As we prepare to move forward in a brand-new year, we all need to be reminded that it is Jesus who has started this work in us, and it is He who will continue to move us forward.

Many times, we need to take time to reflect on where we are in our Christian journey. We need to think about what we have done and what we could do better. We need a fresh start by renewing our minds in the Word of God. We need to be more intentional (on purpose) in reconnecting with God. How do we do this, you may ask?

One thing we can do is let go of past negativity and embrace positive change. It's difficult for many individuals to let go of the negative past; the people who have hurt you, the job you didn't get, the marriage that failed, and on and on the list can go.

To have a “fresh start” means taking on a better perspective in life and to start doing things the way God says, instead of what your emotions or feelings have dictated in the past. A “fresh start” means you now have a positive mindset and that your days ahead are looking so much better. You have decided to walk by faith and not by what your natural eyes see, but what your spiritual faith eyes believe. As you start out in 2025, you will begin to find that your “Fresh Start” in life is so much more refreshing, and you have so much to look forward to on your journey in life and in Christ.
