The Pastor's Corner

Intentional Worship

Oftentimes, when we talk about worship, we think of music and all that comes with it. However, we can only worship the Father in spirit and truth (John 4:24). Worship is not a performance but a way of life. Wherever we go, whether at home, at church, at work, or in society at large, we must exalt our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, with intentional worship.

As we celebrate Passion Week this month, remember His sacrifice for our eternal life. Frequently, we permit the Easter Bunny tradition to overshadow the significance of His arrival on earth for our salvation. As already mentioned, our daily lifestyles should demonstrate the reality that He truly exists, and that He will return to get us.

Co-Pastor's Nuggets

Be Desperate For God

Psalm 42:1 "As the hart panteth after the water brooks, so panteth my soul after thee, O God."

When we are desperate to see or be around someone, we get to them by any means necessary. In the scripture noted above, David had an intense longing for God. This verse compares the longing that a deer has for water after a long run to David's longing to be in God's presence.

Do you have consistent times in your spiritual journey when you have this kind of intensity to be in the presence of God? There should be an urgency and fervency in every child of God's life to be in His presence because we know that He is where we get our strength, our help, and our salvation. We should always acknowledge and follow through with our need for Him each day of our lives. Just like the deer pants until he gets to the water, we should be panting until we make our way to God.

The thing about many people, when they become desperate, is that they try everything else before going to the main source of their deliverance. When we keep God as our focal point, our desperation should drive us directly to Him, which is the main source from which every one of our needs flows.

Desperate situations call for desperate measures. Make sure that you take the right measure and run to the Lord.
