The Pastor's Corner

A Good Corner Man

In combat sports, such as boxing and wrestling, there is a cornerman or a second person who aids or coaches the fighter during the bout. The cornerman is forbidden to instruct the fighter and must remain outside the combat area during the rounds. During the break, they are allowed to enter the ring and minister to the fighter's needs.

In our fight to be good stewards and do what God has called us to do, we need those who will stand in our corner and intercede on our behalf, just like this cornerman, so that we can fight the good fight of faith (1 Timothy 6:11-12). As we understand, no person is an island to him or herself, alone. We are to encourage and to comfort one another, all to the glory of God. The one who is in a fight can accept or reject instructions when preparing for the match (trials and tests) and during life's fight of faith, as well (1 Thessalonians 5:1-11).

Ultimately, Jesus is the most extraordinary cornerman we could ever have. He went to Calvary to die for our sins so that we may have life most abundantly. Therefore, I encourage you to receive your instructions from Jesus Christ, who is always in your corner.

Co-Pastor's Nuggets

The Heart of A Mother

Proverbs 31:26 “She openeth her mouth with wisdom; and in her tongue is the law of kindness.”

One of the major holidays noted in the month of May is Mother’s Day. It is a day that many stores will have a huge influx of shoppers purchasing cards and gifts for mothers or those that represented mothers in their lives.

Mothers are special creations from God. By culture and world standards, every woman that has a child or is a guardian to a child is considered a mother. However, I would like to note that every woman that have children does not have the genuine heart of being a mother. To have the heart of a real mother is a matter of choice.

Mothers have natural innate ability to have unconditional love, to be flexible, patient and to adapt. Mothers are also known for their empathy, nurturing and support, not only for their children, but also for the children of people they don’t even necessarily know.

The heart of a true mother will not intentionally bring harm to their children. She will tell them the truth, even when it hurts. She will teach her children how to walk in wisdom and love will flow from her heart.

Be the mother that has a genuine heart to train and redirect your children in the way they should go. Direct your children to God.
