

THE PASTORS' CORNER

A New Season

The Fall Season has finally arrived, and it's a fascinating time of the year. Very soon, the Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays will be upon us. In the Bible, this season represented a time of harvest, transition, and gratitude. And of course, Christmas reminds us of our Saviors birth. Thanksgiving was symbolized by the Feast of Tabernacles and the time of autumn rains, reflecting God's blessings and the promise of spiritual renewal.

As I look back, growing up in the country was extremely exciting for everyone, especially the farmers. Also, it was a time when church revivals would take place, and people were thankful to God for a successful harvest. But most importantly, it was a time of spiritual harvest. As mentioned earlier, the celebration of these two holidays should bring thoughts of praise and thankfulness to our hearts.

It is of utmost importance that we use these seasons (as in all seasons) as an opportunity for a personal spiritual revival. We must remember that God is the reason for every season, and we should honor Him for this by living a life that reflects Him well. As the earth remains, seasons will occur, and at this present time, it's a time for us to reap and celebrate what has been sown (Genesis 8:22).

Co-Pastor's Nuggets

In The Good, Bad and the Ugly,
Give Thanks

1Thessalonians 5: "In everything give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you"

The coming few months will bring awareness to such things as Depression, Cancer, Domestic Violence, Down Syndrome, Alzheimer, Diabetes, etc. And though these are definitely situations of life to be concerned about, there are still many more things we have to be mindful of and thankful for.

This scripture teaches us that we are not told to give thanks for these situations, but to give thanks in the midst of them. They remind us that God is always with us no matter what we are going through in life. We can be assured that because of God's sovereignty that He knows what and why He allows such things.

In verse 16, the scripture reminds us to rejoice ever more. Through the good, the bad and the ugly things that come at us, we should have enough joy inside us to pull up a "thank you Jesus" and a "Praise the Lord". We have to learn to accept what God allows, because He knows what He's doing, we don't.

Remember, in this quarter there is also the month of Thanksgiving and the month that commemorates our Savior's birth, Christmas. These are definitely times to think about God's goodness to mankind.

Through it all, let's give God thanks.

humbly submitted.

Pastor J.
