Mission of RockFaith IMI

To reach those of various ethnic, social, and economic backgrounds, and disciple them, through the Word of God, on how to live a victorious Life in Christ Jesus

To connect souls to God by way of the Cross of Christ

SENIOR PASTORS’ CORNER

Transitioning into our new season

As the caterpillar transitions from its ugly state to a beautiful butterfly, so must we put aside those challenging situations from 2025 (Philippians 3:13-14) and look forward to what God has in store for us in 2026. I’m genuinely excited about what God has in store for His people, individually and collectively. We shouldn’t allow the past to imprison us any longer and keep us from God’s blessings.

God has a promising future set aside for everyone (Jeremiah 29:11-14). Still, we must have a willing spirit to obey His Word to reach our promised land right here on earth (Isaiah 1:19) and, eventually, to dwell with Him in our eternal home. To transition into our new season, we need a renewed mind.

Starting now, let’s call our new season into existence (Proverbs 18:21, Romans 4:17).

Transitioning into our new season is what God would have us do.

Delighted to Serve,
Senior Pastor, Rev. Gullie Hoggard

CO-PASTOR'S NUGGET

GROWTH, LOVE & CHANGE

2Corinthians 5:17 “Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away, behold all things are become new.”

When I think about our ministry theme for 2026, “Transitioning into our New Season”, growth, love and change come to mind. Growth is from the perspective of stepping into uncharted territory that we’ve not been in before. Love is from the perspective of allowing the love of God to be manifested in our lives like never before. Change is from the perspective of allowing the word of God to transform our lives into the created beings He intended us to be.

We are called to embrace God’s constant renewal of growth, love and change in our lives as we focus on being new creations in Christ Jesus.

Let’s focus on sanctifying ourselves for the use of God’s service as we deepen relationships with others in the process.

Love calls for growth, and growth calls for change. So, during this quarter, let’s ask God to make us those new creatures of growth, love and change.

I look forward to seeing the new you as we prepare to:

“transition into our new season!”

humbly submitted.

Pastor J.

The Declaration Of Our Faith

We declare God's Word as our source.

We hold firm that the Bible is trustworthy and will not fail to accomplish its purpose. 2Tim 3:16; Psalms 119:89

We declare our faith in the finished work that Jesus Christ did at Calvary's Cross.

We believe that Jesus Christ is the only begotten Son of God, born, crucified, and raised from the dead for the forgiveness of the sins of the world. John 3:16

We declare our faith in God.

Our faith is rooted in confessing with our mouth that Jesus Christ is Lord and believing in our heart that God raised Jesus Christ from the dead for our salvation. Rom 10:9-10

We declare our faith regarding the Holy Ghost.

We stand firm in our belief that the Holy Spirit is a divine person, a third member of the Trinity (Father, Son & Holy Spirit). Matt 28:19; 2Cor 13:17

We declare our faith in being sanctified.

We believe that the power of the Holy Spirit is able to keep us and set us apart for God's use in this present world. John 17:14-16

We declare our faith in being a cheerful giver.

We believe that God wants us to give willingly and joyfully, not grudgingly or under compulsion. 2Cor 9:7

We declare our faith in Jesus' return.

We believe that based on God's word, Jesus will return to receive His Church without spot or blemish (which includes RockFaith International Ministries, Inc.).

This is the Declaration of Our Faith.
